CALL FOR MEMBERS

MUSEUM AND HERITAGE COMMISSION CALL FOR MEMBERS

The Quesnel Museum & Heritage Commission is a volunteer board reporting to City Council. The Commission plays an active role in providing direction and recommending policy to Council for the operation of the Quesnel Museum & Archives. The Commission also has a strong mandate for community heritage awareness and conservation.

The Commission consists of one Council member and eight members selected at large appointed for a two-year term. A number of appointments will expire December 31.

No previous museum experience is required. Of importance is your enthusiasm for local history and community heritage conservation as well as your interest to help establish policy and a vision for the Quesnel museum. The Commission meets monthly or as business requires. Letters of interest will be accepted until November 30, 2009. Please include a brief explanation outlining your specific interest in becoming a member and any applicable training and experience you have that could be considered beneficial for this position.

For additional information please call Elizabeth Hunter, Museum & Heritage Manager at 250.992.9580.

Submit applications to the attention of Jeff Norburn, General Manager of Community Services by mail to the City of Quesnel, 410 Kinchant Street, Quesnel, BC, V2J 7J5, by facsimile to 250.992.2206, or by e-mail to jnorburn@city.quesnel.bc.ca.
